

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme

Germany – “Pferdewirtschaftsmeister” (riding) - Learning outcomes

Show jumping

knowledge The Pferdewirtschaftsmeister has to have knowledge about...	skills The Pferdewirtschaftsmeister has to be able to...	competences The Pferdewirtschaftsmeister is able to bear the responsibility for ... horse behaviour	analyse the behaviour of the horse and take this into account when handling the horse	the correct horse handling the body parts of the horse and their functions	analyse the functional connection of the body of the horse and the behaviour of the horse to include the results in the different education measures.	analysis of the horse and plan the education strategy of the horse corresponding to the results the general education and training methods	use different general education and training methods	the general education and training of the horse different possibilities to work with a horse from the ground	work systematically with the horse from the ground	work with the horse from the ground the connections within the scale of education	work a horse up to the highest level within the connections of the scale of education	the education of the horse up to the highest level different show jumping elements focused on the gymnastic work of the horse up to the highest level	different show jumping elements focused on the gymnastic work of the horse corresponding to the use and the needs of the horse up to the highest level	the plan and the realization of the education of the horse with the right equipment the process of education and training of the horse up to the highest level	plan, realize and analyse the process of education and training of the horse corresponding to the needs of the horse up to the highest level different education equipments	choose the right education equipments different ways to prepare the horse for presentations	prepare the horse for presentations	the preparation of horses for presentations

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme

different organisations and their rules	prepare and compete horses in different breeding and performance tests corresponding to their needs	planning, realizing and analysing the preparation and the competing of horses in different breeding and performance tests analyse the results of the different breeding and performance tests different ways to plan, implement and control education measures for horses	plan, implement and control different education measures for horses	the plan, implementation and the control of different education measures for horses the effects of his or her own appearance	choose the right appearance for the different customers	his/her own appearance react to customer needs and complains	the customer service have a good contact with the customer gain new customers
	Plan and implement marketing measures	the marketing plan with the help of professional marketers