

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme

Germany – “Pferdewirtschaftsmeister” (riding) - Learning outcomes

teaching

knowledge The Pferdewirtschaftsmeister has to have knowledge about...	skills The Pferdewirtschaftsmeister has to be able to...	competences The Pferdewirtschaftsmeister is able to bear the responsibility for ...
how to teach horse behaviour	teach to analyse the behaviour of the horse and take this into account when handling the horse	teaching the correct horse handling how to teach the body parts of the horse and their functions	teach to analyse the functional connection of the body of the horse and the behaviour of the horse to include the results in the different education measures.	teaching analysis of the horse and plan the education strategy of the horse corresponding to the results how to teach the appropriate way to break in the horse corresponding to the different safety measures	teach to realize the appropriate way to break in the horse corresponding to the different safety measures	teaching the way of breaking in the horse how to teach the general education and training methods	teach to use different general education and training methods	teaching the general education and training of the horse how to teach different possibilities to work with a horse from the ground	teach to work systematically with the horse from the ground	teaching the work with the horse from the ground how to teach the connections within the scale of education up to the highest level	teach to work a horse up to the highest level within the connections of the scale of education	teaching the education of the horse up to the highest level how to teach different dressage lections, different show jumping elements focused on the gymnastic work of the horse and advantages of using different elements and obstacles in the outside areas up to the highest level	teach to use different dressage lections, different show jumping elements focused on the gymnastic work of the horse and use different elements and obstacles in the outside areas corresponding to the use and the needs of the horse up to the highest level	teaching the plan and the realization of the education of the horse with the right equipment how to teach the process of education and training of the horse up to the highest level	teach to plan, realize and analyse the process of education and training of the horse up to the highest level corresponding to the needs of the horse how to teach the knowledge of different education equipments	teach to chose the right education equipments how to teach the knowledge of different ways to prepare the horse for presentations	teach to prepare the horse for presentations	teaching the preparation of horses for presentations how to teach the knowledge of different organisations and their rules	teach to prepare and compete horses in different breeding and performance tests corresponding to their needs	teaching the planning, realizing and analysing the preparation and the competing of horses in different breeding and performance tests teach to analyse the results of the different breeding and performance tests how to teach different ways to plan, implement and control education measures for horses	teach to plan, implement and control different education measures for horses	teaching the plan, implementation and the control of different education measures for horses how to teach the different possibilities to teach	teach to teach the method of the classical education corresponding to the seat and target of the customer	education of the customers how to teach the seat of the rider and the different ways of teaching the right seat how to teach the effects of his or her own appearance	teach to choose the right appearance for the different customers	teaching his/her own appearance teach to react to customer needs and complains	teaching the customer service teach to have a good contact with the customer teach to gain new customers teach to plan and implement marketing measures	teaching the marketing plan with the help of professional marketers how to teach to teach	teach to teach	teaching to teach

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme